

Nehemiah Journey: Day 18 of 52

One of the highlights of my day is hearing from many of you how God is moving in your prayer life. Thank you so much for sharing. You continue to share personal prayer requests and I am praying over them with you and look forward to seeing how God glorifies Himself through these situations.

In the text for this Sunday, Nehemiah 5, we see sometimes on the road to greater health, other problems arise. Another way to put it, many of us together are trying to walk more in the light, the problem is the light reveals places that need attention. I am convinced God is going to shine His light in even greater ways on His people in the days ahead. We must respond and obey as He shows us things that need to change in our lives personally and in His church.

May God grant each of us grace to obey in the days ahead! Remember “Trust and Obey, for there is no other way, to be happy in Jesus, than to trust and obey!”

If you have questions you want to ask, prayer requests, or testimony you want to share I would love to hear it. You can email me at tommy.k@elbchurch.org or text/call at 337 424 8407
