Wednesday

- The Gospels are silent on what happened on this day before the Passover meal. Many believe Jesus was preparing spiritually for what was to come. I normally take this day to fast and pray asking God to restore the awe of the Gospel in my heart and soul.

Thursday (Matthew 26:17-75; Mark 14:12-52; Luke 22:7-53; John 13:1-John 18:11)

- Preparations made for the Passover meal
- Jesus has the Passover meal with the disciples and washes the disciples feet (John 13:1-20)
- Jesus shares that He will be betrayed
- Jesus shares that all his disciples will deny Him
- The institution of the Lord's Supper
- Prayer in the Garden of Gethsemane
- Jesus betrayed by Judas and arrested (Either late Thursday night or early Friday morning)

Friday (Matthew 26:57--27:66; Mark 14: 53--15:1-47 : Luke 22:63-23:56; John 18:12--19:37)

(These events take place from very early Friday morning through the burial of Christ shortly after 3pm in the afternoon)

- Trial before Annas (John 18:12-14, 19-23)
- Trial before Caiaphas
- Peter denies Jesus
- Trial before the Sanhedrin
- Judas commits suicide
- Jesus before Pilate
- Jesus before Herod (Luke 23:6-10)
- Herod sends Jesus back to Pilate (Luke 23:11-12)
- Jesus sentenced to death
- Jesus mocked by soldiers (Fulfillment of Scripture)
